12. Superbowl LI Party

This year’s Big Game was one to forget for 12’s, but luckily it’s never too early to start planning for next year! Our Seahawks will once again be vying for a spot in the Super Bowl and with everyone in Seattle hoping to throw the best party, there’s no time to waste. Let us do the work, and when the big day arrives you’ll host a blowout at Canvas Event Space, the hottest new venue in SODO! Thanks to Pedersen’s Event Rentals, the entire space will be outfitted to your tastes and your party’s needs. And of course, because no game day would be complete without snacks and drinks, your party also comes with a selection of appetizers from Duos Catering and a keg of your favorite Mac & Jack’s brew! After the game, dance the night away as a DJ from Magnolia Rhapsody spins the beats.

Last but not least, you can walk out of here in style in a Nube9 Jersey autographed by Seattle Seahawks fan-favorite Michael Bennett.

Nube9 is the brainchild of Ruth True, a basketball mom and Seattle native. Frustrated by the piles of plastic water bottles thrown out at youth basketball tournaments, Ruth made it her mission to build an apparel company that could ignite a conversation about what we discard, and the Nube9 uniform was born. Made from recycled plastic water bottles, each football uniform diverts up to 75 plastic bottles from our landfills and oceans.
Valid for a Super Bowl party on Sunday, February 5, 2017 only. Package includes rental of Canvas Event Space, $500 in appetizers from Duos, one keg of Mac & Jack’s, $500 to spend on party rentals from Pedersen’s and one autographed Michael Bennett Nube9 jersey.

17. Gifts of Courage

For more than 54 years, we have been blessed each and every day to witness infants and toddlers learning to stand, taking their first steps, saying or perhaps signing their first words.

We stand shoulder to shoulder with their parents as they laugh, weep, and rejoice.

Research regarding the power of early intervention is plentiful and irrefutable. Did you know that 85% of brain development occurs in the first 1,100 days of life? Birth to three is the most critical phase of brain development for any child— a one-time chance to make a significant difference.

Each year Kindering helps more nearly 4,000 children and their families.

Please help Kindering tonight to ensure it can expand its space, team of experts and equipment to treat thousands more vulnerable children and their families in our community.

Imagine if infants like Oliver or Leyla & Laneya could not receive the services and therapies they need to reach their full potential. We must know in our hearts that we’ve given them all the help they need.
