We are a digital communications agency that specializes in building brands, engaging consumers and creating strategies that inspire action for you!

the strategist

With a personality as colorful as her creativity, Niesha loves to think outside the box for new and exciting ways to showcase her clients stories. After graduating from Fresno State as a double major in Public Relations and Fashion Merchandising, Niesha has dipped her toes in various waters, many in which happen to be social-worthy: food, flowers, wine, travel, fashion, and events.
