Panama Canal Cruise —Ports of Call

CARTAGENA, COLOMBIA

Cobbled streets, balconies overflowing with blooming bougainvillea and pastel-colored buildings lining the elegant plazas, make Cartagena one of Latin America's most photogenic cities. Founded in 1533, this Spanish colonial city is steeped in history. Its location made it a popular port for plunderers and pirates but today the city is quick to give up its treasures to modern visitors.

KRALENDIJK, BONAIRE

Called simply "Playa" or "Beach" by the locals, this tropical wonderland is lined with pastel stucco houses in pinks, oranges and greens, beautiful Caribbean architecture and churches. Coral skeletons can sometimes be found along the fringe of the island. The island is home to a rich mixture of ethnicities—African, Asian, European and Indian.

ORANJESTAD, ARUBA

In Dutch, Oranjestad means "orange city". The capital of Aruba, "the happy island", was founded in 1796. Fort Zoutman, a military outpost, was the first structure to be built on the island in 1866. Include in your visit the Willem III Tower, added to the Fort in 1868, included the first public clock, and a spire that served as a lighthouse with a petrol lamp.

PANAMA CANAL/GATUN LAKE

A marvel of engineering, the Panama Canal has intrigued cruise travelers since for 50 years. When you book an overland journey on your partial transit of the Panama Canal, you'll really travel like the jetsetters do as you sail through the Caribbean entrance of this maritime marvel. Once we arrive at Gatun Lake, booked shore excursion guests can disembark for an unforgettable adventure that not only promises beautiful scenery and wonderful photo ops, but an exciting jaunt to Colón, where guests will resume their cruise back aboard the ship.

PUERTO LIMON, COSTA RICA

Puerto Limón – one of several established "black" Central American coastal cities, like Bluefields in Nicaragua and Livingston in Guatemala, a typical Caribbean port. Along the Tortuguero Canal you see luxuriant vegetation and colorful wooden houses on stilts. An excursion to Veragua Rainforest, the fascinating "research and adventure park", provides a quick and sleek introduction to some of the region's rich biodiversity.

SANTA MARIA, COLOMBIA

Admire the stunning bays of Santa Marta and popular beaches. Explore the ancient cultures of the Taironas who occupied the land thousands of years ago. Stroll over to the Cathedral and admire its beautiful architecture and learn about its history.

WILLEMSTAD, CURACAO

Walk around this quaint harbor town and you'll think you've travelled back in time to Old Amsterdam. Admire the colorful Dutch architecture and take advantage of the excellent shopping. Relax on 17-century veranda with a drink made with the famous Curacao liqueur.
